

Boutique attitude. Global backing

We combine the independent ethos and investment culture of a boutique, with the strength and commitment of one of Africa's largest asset managers.

This unique operating model and our shared values allow us to do things differently and pursue long-term strategies. All to give you full and continued confidence in the long-term growth of your investments.